

Labor's Community Services

Fall/Winter 2013 Special Edition

It's a "Labor of Love" for Unions

On Saturday, November 9, 2013 over 100 union and community volunteers turned out to help brighten up Waimanalo Elementary and Intermediate School in the first "Labor of Love" union give back project. At 6:00 am volunteers from DC-50 arrived to begin striping the parking lot and painting curbs. At 8:00 am other volunteers began painting doors, weeding and other general clean-up jobs. In a few hours most of the teams had completed their tasks.

A thank you assembly was held on Tuesday, November 12, 2013. Comedian Augie T. of the Mason's Union emceed the program. Hawaii AFL-CIO Executive Director Randy Perreira presented Principal Noel Richardson a check for $18,500 representing the union funded teacher supplies and campus beautification project. After the assembly, union leaders were treated to demonstrations of some of the projects their donations funded. A paiai pounding demonstration by Daniel Anthony from Mana ai and a tour of the school's now fully equipped robotics lab were highlights..

2013 United Way Campaign

Part of being a union member is helping those who are less fortunate than ourselves. Giving to United Way via payroll deduction is an easy and painless way to help build better communities for everyone. The United Way campaigns have been endorsed by the Hawaii State AFL-CIO and the national leadership of most major unions across the country. If you would like more information on running a fundraising campaign in your workplace or would like to donate please contact the AFL-CIO Community Services Liaison on your island.
